Principal's Notes

Welcome :

I am very pleased to welcome our new Italian language assistant Francesco Bonicelli to Baimbridge College and the Hamilton district. Francesco will assist our Italian teachers Marco Antonelli and Ilenia Vona with their classes here at Baimbridge College and at Dunkled PS, George St PS, Gray St PS and Hamilton North PS. Having an assistant is a great bonus and I would like to thank COASIT, the Italian co-operative in Carlton, for their on-going support in sourcing and supplying us with assistants over recent years

NAPLAN:

Year 7 and 9 students began their NAPLAN testing this week. Letters went home with all students to explain the process and the procedures should parents want to withdraw their son or daughter from the testing regime. I have included a letter that we will give to students that puts the NAPLAN test results in perspective relative to the personal qualities that we all value in our students. NAPLAN results themselves are not the measure of a person rather they are simply a reflection of a narrow series of qualities that make a contribution to the overall skill set of the whole person.

Koorie Inclusive School Wide Positive Behaviours :

Baimbridge College has signed up to be part of this program that will involve liaising with the families and students of Koorie heritage in our school. We will be arranging an event to meet all our Koorie families and involve them, along with the remainder of our school community, in re-defining the values and vision to guide Baimbridge College into the new era as a stand alone secondary school once again.

Education Week :

This year Education Week falls on the week of 22 -26 May. Baimbridge College will again open its doors to the public and prospective students and their parents by holding tours of the school on Friday 26 May. Tours will take place at 9.00am and 12 noon beginning in the Hamilton District Skills Centre. I would like to offer an open invitation to families and friends to see the school at work. Please let our office know that you are coming by contacting us on 55722788.

Capital Works :

The State Budget was announced last week and while we had high hopes that Baimbridge College was finally going to be provided with well overdue capital works funding to begin a renewal program we were once again left disappointed. We were given every reason to be hopeful but it was not to be. We did however receive planning funding in 2016 so we will continue working with the education department and architects to develop a plan for the school should funding be forthcoming in 2018. We are in the process of organising a consultation session with staff and school council members in the near future so that the architects and education department personnel can get input into the future design of the school.

Generations in Jazz :
I was very pleased to hear that our music students had a wonderful time in Mt Gambier last weekend and that they were outstanding ambassadors for our school. In addition to the fact that they represented us brilliantly they also were judged 7th out of 20 in the stage band segment of the weekend that they played in. I would like to congratulate them on an excellent performance. I would also like to thank Mr McLeod and Mr Cheng for giving their time to take our students to the Generations in Jazz weekend and trust that our students gained significantly from the experience and continue to grow in their skills and confidence.

Uniform – coats
Newly designed coats are in the process of becoming available. Accurate clothing are organising this in conjunction with our SRC. These are not yet available for purchase. In the interim it is the same rule as in previous years. Students can wear an overcoat to and from school, but not whilst at school or in class.

Baimbridge College Website (www.baimbridge-co.vic.edu.au):
I would like to remind parents that Baimbridge College has a website. I encourage parents to familiarise themselves with the website as it contains a very comprehensive list of school information. I would like to thank Mrs Robinson for the excellent job she has done re-constructing and maintaining the new site especially with the changes we have undertaken in the last few months.

Compass :
Our online student management system, Compass, will be enhanced this year. Parents should have their own personal log on which is different to their son or daughter's. The system is accessible anywhere the internet is available on computer, smart phone, tablet or other mobile device. The website is https://baimbridge-co.vic.jdlf.com.au/login.aspx If you require more information accessing the system please contact the school. There is a link on our website to help you should you forget the address.

Access to Newsletters :
Baimbridge College will produce a newsletter every second week that will be distributed to parents by email or via the Baimbridge College website. To ensure you receive your newsletter you can contact our front office on 55722788, so that they can be placed on our email distribution list OR just log on to our website each week.

If there are any questions or concerns I urge parents and guardians to contact myself, our Assistant Principals Mr John Hill and Miss Rosemary Morgan or the relevant Co-ordinators.

Dear Baimbridge College Community,
Thank you so much for your donations to Katuuso Primary School in Uganda! The school community here sends you their greetings and thanks.
The children love the Jump Rope for Heart skipping ropes - they are more used to hand made banana fibre and old, frayed rope.
I know the teachers will appreciate the literacy resources and the scientific glassware too when they arrive in the container in the coming months.
I am enjoying my work here - I have 12 months as Education Advisor to the School for Life schools here in rural, central Uganda.
Best wishes for Term 2,
Jenny Clark

Mr Hill is enjoying the added bonus of exposing the students to some old school music - his playlist ranging from Johnny Cash to Disney……

A Tale of Two Towns

It was late 2016 when the Baimbridge College Music Program made the decision to take the Senior Band to the Generations in Jazz Festival (GIJ) in Mt Gambier, South Australia. The school's last performance at the largest Jazz festival in the Southern Hemisphere had been several years before. It was the performance that almost did not happen as the closing date had been missed. But fortune was on the side of the department as the organisers graciously allowed the school to compete. The summer holidays would soon follow.

The 2017 school year began with a flurry of activity on all fronts related to Music. And yet like a pot on the back of the stove that is slowly simmering, so were the sands through the hourglass during events that would lead the Senior band in Mt Gambier. Band charts would need to be organised as the division the Band entered was Division 4+, a division for school's whose bands did not consist of the standard Stage/Jazz band setup. The process over the course of the first term was a constant stream of emails between Mr Peter Cheng, Mr Christopher McLeod, and the organisers of GIJ. The countdown all the meantime continued to tick down.

Soon enough it was Friday May 5th, 2017. The time had come for the band to have their final afternoon rehearsal. Baimbridge College Principal Mr Robert Vecchiet and Assistant Principal Mr John Hill wished the students well as ambassadors of the college and as young musicians. The bus driven by Barrie Tooley soon departed Hamilton for Mt Gambier. But it wouldn't be until the next day that the real action began.

The scenes at the GIJ festival always border on legendary as the greatest Australian and International Jazz musicians hold masterclasses, recitals, and concerts over the course of the weekend. Nearly 6,000 school students from 125 schools across Australia had appeared to compete in the competition side of the festival. They would be watched by countless audiences made up of parents, students, and festival patrons.

The time for the Senior Band came at 11:40am as they were ushered into the warm-up room that stood adjacent to the Ed Wilson pavilion. The sounds of stray notes, last minute uniform checks, and a flurry of shoe polishing would see the band through to the green room. The cold and rain filled the voids and immersed itself through the sides of the pavilion as the students, staff, and parents found any way possible to keep themselves warm. As midday came around it would become time for the band to step on stage.

Music performance can be nerve-wracking. Competition performance more so. The Band promptly set itself up and waited for the nod from the adjudicator Mr Bill Broughton, a composer, and former Hollywood session musician. It soon came. And the band played. The sounds of Jazz that one could hear wafting through the Barbara Critten Music Centre in the lead up to this moment were now on show for those in the Ed Wilson pavilion. It said this: This is Baimbridge College, and this is what we can do. And like the sands in the hourglass, the performance was soon over.

The results would not be released for another day. And by that time the performers, staff, and parents who made their way to Mt Gambier had returned to Hamilton. The field of 20 that Baimbridge College performed in boasted some of the best schools in Australia. The final results would see the Senior Band place seventh in a tightly contested field. The students led by Mr Peter Cheng worked diligently for the results they earned. And we congratulate them for this.

Article written by Christopher McLeod, Head of Music at Baimbridge College.

A VERY important message to our Year 7 and 9 students from Mr Vecchiet

Dear Year 7 and 9 Students,

You will have just sat the NAPLAN tests. There is something very important for you to know. This test does not assess all of what makes each of you exceptional and unique.
The people who score these tests don't know that some of you love to sing, are good at drawing or can teach others how to use a computer program. They have not seen the way that some of you can dance with grace or speak confidently to a large group. They do not know that your friends count on you to be there for them when they are sad. They do not know that you participate in sports, help your Mum and Dad or that you play with your little brother, sister or cousins. They do not know that you are caring, thoughtful and that every day you do your best. Because these attributes cannot be tested.
The scores you get from this test will tell you how you did on that day, but they will not tell you everything. They can't tell you that you have improved on something you once found difficult. They can't tell you that you brighten up your teacher's day. They can't tell you how amazingly special you are.
So thank you for doing the tests. All the best for the NAPLAN results and remember there is no one way to 'test' all of the wonderful things that make you, YOU!
Kind regards,

Robert Vecchiet
Principal

Are you in Year 11?
Are you interested in Science?
Do you think you might like a career involving Science?

The National Youth Science Forum (NYSF) occurs in January 2018. Applications from year 11 students for the 12-day immersive residential program in January 2018 are open.

In 2018, there will be up to 600 places available at the National Youth Science Forum (NYSF) – an extra 200 places. Attending NYSF is a unique opportunity for young Australian science students in year 11 in 2017 to participate in Australia's leading science and technology outreach activity. Before entering year 12, the participants experience 12 days of science and technology related activities, designed to encourage their continued study in these fields, as well as an opportunity to learn about the wide variety of careers that are available through studying a STEM degree. You can read more about the NYSF 2017 program's activities here, and view our promotional videos here.
Everything you need to know is available on the NYSF website, www.nysf.edu.au. Please contact us if you have any questions about the application process - including how to put students in touch with their local Rotary club - or the NYSF.

Dates, venues and places
In 2018, two sessions will be run consecutively at The Australian National University in Canberra, providing 400 places. One session will be run at The University of Queensland, providing up to 200 places.
Dates for the three sessions are:
Session A – Canberra – Tuesday 2 – Saturday 13 January 2018
Session B – Brisbane – Tuesday 9 – Saturday 20 January 2018
Session C – Canberra – Tuesday 16 – Saturday 27 January 2018
Places in these programs will be allocated irrespective of a student's home state.

Program fee
The program fee for students selected for NYSF 2018 is $3097.
Support for funding a successfully selected student's place at the NYSF may be available through the endorsing Rotary club. Students need to make sure they understand what level, if any, of funding is available through their endorsing Rotary club as part of their application process.

Funding assistance
NYSF has launched an Equity Scholarship Fund to provide up to forty (40) scholarships, valued at $1000 each, for participants in the NYSF 2018, 2019 and 2020 programs. The Scholarship is not paid directly to the successful applicants, but is awarded as a reduction in the NYSF Year 12 Program Fee ($3097 for January 2018) which is paid by a student's endorsing Rotary club. Students whose family may not have previously been able to support their application are encouraged to apply and to benefit from this fund.
An additional source of funding assistance is also now available through a new Australian government program designed to support students attending activities such as the NYSF. Further information is available here - https://www.business.gov.au/assistance/inspiring-australia-science-engagement/student-sponsorship. Please note that the guidelines on levels of funding available through this program are subject to review, and funding is not available to individuals – only organisations – including schools. You are encouraged to read the information carefully so that you understand what is available and the process involved. Please direct any questions about this funding to the relevant government department as noted on their information. Applications to both the NYSF Equity Scholarship Fund and the Australian government program are permissible. Contact nysf@nysf.edu.au for the information sheet about the NYSF Equity Scholarship Fund.

Application process
Students are required to submit an Expression of Interest through the NYSF website – www.nysf.edu.au. There is a $60 application fee associated with this process, which covers the administrative cost of the NYSF selection process. This is not refundable. Students must submit their printed-out and signed EOI to their endorsing Rotary club by 31 May 2017.
You can also like us on Facebook to stay up to date and get reminders about deadlines and other information - /nysfoz. In the meantime, if you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact the NYSF office on 02 6125 2777 or nysf@nysf.edu.au

2017 School Production

Monday May 1st, 2017

Dear Parent/Guardian,

RE: 2017 School Production

Baimbridge College Hamilton is proud to present the seminal Broadway hit Bye Bye Birdie as the 2017 school production. The school production represents an exciting opportunity for our students. They will follow in the steps of many past generations in continuing the fantastic traditions of Music, Drama, Dance, and live performance that Baimbridge College has come to be known by. More importantly, students involved in the production can excel and gain confidence through their new-found abilities. Enclosed in this letter is: The Production Team, The Rehearsal Venues, how information will be disseminated, Attendance expectations, and the Rehearsal Schedule.

Production Team

Mrs Rachael McLeod, Producer and Director
Mr Christopher McLeod, Musical Director and Vocal Coach
Mr Josh Stephens, Assistant Director and Assistant to the Producer
Ms Amelia Barras, Choreographer

Rehearsal Venues

Rehearsals for the 2017 production will take place in the following venues:

The Mad House (Tuesday and Thursday afternoon)
Baimbridge College West Campus

WB1 (Sunday)
Baimbridge College West Campus

These venues may be subject to change and it is important that your child checks COMPASS and the school electronic bulletin points throughout the week.

Information Dissemination

The flow of information for Cast members during a school production is important. Information will be disseminated through COMPASS, The daily bulletin, Email, and Physical letters. It is important that your child checks these regularly to ensure that they are up to date on all aspects of the 2017 school production.

Attendance Expectations

Student attendance at rehearsals is important to the overall success of the production. Students are expected to attend all production rehearsals as required. It is important that the Producer is notified of all absences. In the interests of scheduling, the production team asks that if your child has any regular commitments that may impact on their ability to attend, that the production team is notified as soon as practicable. Students have been given a two-rehearsal grace period of non-attendance without notification. Continued absence without notification may result in your child being asked to leave the production.

Any student absence notifications should be directed to Mr Christopher McLeod, Music Co-ordinator at Baimbridge College via email (mcleod.christopher.c@edumail.vic.gov.au) or telephone (5572 2788).

Rehearsal Schedule

Please note, this rehearsal schedule is correct as of the date of this letter. It may be subject to change. Parents, and Students will be notified via COMPASS and email if this occurs.
